WHEREAS, The people of the United States and of South Dakota have a rich ethnic heritage which spans many centuries and a heritage which has expanded dramatically in recent centuries; and,

WHEREAS, It is imperative that each generation learn from preceding generations to become an educated and functional society; and,

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to establish the week in which Thanksgiving Day falls each year to recognize our rich heritage; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota has a rich cultural heritage, with many races, nationalities and religions represented in our State; and,

WHEREAS, It would be beneficial for each of us to reflect upon our own heritage, while at the same time learning more about our fellow South Dakotans' varied heritage:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 19-25, 1978, as

HERITAGE WEEK

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Seventh Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight
